

World Malaria Day in the UK: Mobilising to Save Lives

A Panel of 4 speakers from the organising stakeholders will discuss how they work, can mobilise and connect with others in the fight against malaria, both in the UK and internationally.

Speakers:

Opening remarks by Stephen O'Brien MP, Chair of the All Party Parliamentary Group on Malaria, Shadow Minister for Health and Member of Parliament for Eddisbury (Cheshire)
Martha Osamor, Chairperson, Nigerian Organisation of Women & African Women's Welfare Association
Edwin Nichols, Global Constituency Manager, World AIDS Campaign
Gail Cartmail, TUC General Council and Assistant General Secretary of Unite the Union (Amicus section)
Justine Frain, VP Global Community Partnerships, GSK
Closing remarks by Sunil Mehra, CEO of Malaria Consortium

Date: Friday 25th April 2008

Location: Invision Suites 1 & 2, Trades Union Congress, Congress House, Great Russell Street, London, WC1B 3LS

Time: 10.30 to 12pm with buffet lunch to follow

Event organised by Malaria Consortium on behalf of the European Alliance Against Malaria, Nigerian Organisation of Women, African Women's Welfare Association, International Business Leaders Forum and the Trade Union Congress.

Please RSVP to s.pickwick@malariaconsortium.org by Friday 18th April

